INDUSTRY LOSES 43 YEAR VETERAN

CARY, NC (June 4, 2015) – Ron Dulaney, an industry leader and 43-year employee of Container Graphics Corporation, passed away on May 29, 2015. During his time with Container Graphics Corporation, Ron held the position of General Manager of the Hayward, CA facility and later became Vice President of technical support of the company’s Western Region. Ron assisted in the development of a number of new die cutting products that have improved the converting process. He was known as an expert cutting die maker, trainer and troubleshooter. His knowledge of cutting dies and the converting process helped many box manufacturers during the course of his career. Ron fought a brief but brave battle against cancer. He is survived by his wife Dana and their son Andrew.

Container Graphics Corporation is one of the world’s largest manufacturers of printing plates and cutting dies for corrugated packaging production. The company maintains its corporate headquarters in Cary, NC (USA), and operates 17 facilities worldwide.
